PROPHECY OF 1962

We, the Juniors of Bridge City High School, do hereby prophesy the following fates for our upperclassmen in hope that some day we, the underclass, will blossom into stately and learned Seniors. It is our hope to be, someday, as good-looking and handsome, as charming and captivating, as admiring and admired as this graduating class of 1962.

As we look into the future, we see the Seniors doing very well for themselves in the year of 1985.

MARTHA ARMSTRONG is sponsor of Bridge City Student Council.

PEGGY BUNCH and the 700 voice choir, of which she is director, are making a world tour.

DENISE DENNIS and VIRGINIA DONNAUD are making fabulous salaries writing and recording their own versions of popular songs.

SHARON ELKINS is holding special classes for future cheerleaders.

Manager of Strand Theater, JOYCE FONTENOT and PEGGY WAGNER, Manager of MacAuthur Drive-In are now attending a convention in Hoboken, Ohio.

MARCIA JEFFCOTE and ALICE KAY PEARSON are co-directresses of the TEXAS AGGIE BAND.

To provide for her large family, JUDY MAHFOUZ is seen hoeing her own garden.

PATSY MILLER sings to the beautiful accompaniment of ANN SIGLER at the organ.

SANDRA PIGGOTT owns and operates a dress shop which specializes in tall girls' fashions.

NORMA SORRELS and PAT PARKHURST are keeping in shape for basketball by regular workouts at PATRICIA FORD'S Gymnasium.

KAREN WADDELL is routine instructor and CHARLOTTE SCHAEFER is business manager of world famous "Rockin' Redbirds."

PROPHECY OF 1962

FREDDIE CALHOUN will be water boy for the Houston Colts. His main job will be to keep a fresh supply of water for the colts. He will also have to give water to the players.

LESLIE McDONALD will be a private in that great service-the United States Army. He will be of the greatest value as permanent Latrine orderly.

LARRY MORRIS will take that simple, but much needed job of taking over the Jack Parr Show.

DONALD BROWN is the new Mr. America. Donald plans to open a nationwide network of health studios.

ROBERT DUPUIS is now the Chief of Police in New York City. Robert was selected for the job after masterminding the break-up of a crime syndicate which sold cigarettes to kindergarten students.

DARREL MICHEL is the trainer of a large flea circus. Darrel and his small friends will be the stars of a new T.V. show next season. It will be a family situation comedy, of course.

WALTER HARRIS is now teaching nuclear physics at the University of West Orange.

JERRY LEWIS is now playing ice hockey for the New York Rangers. Jerry is noted for his sure-footed speed on the ice.

PROPHECY OF 1962

Anyone wishing advice on wedding trousseaux, see FRANCES MAGNESS WINTERS, owner of Winters Bridle Fashions.

SHIRLEY LaROSE has just been named "Pen-Up Girl" of 1985.

Taking over the duties of president of Harvard University is SHIRLEY McGILBERTY. She earned this honor by her extreme devotion to education and her outstanding intelligence.

LINDA PARK is now editor of the New York Times. She said this achievement is due to her writing editorials of the Redbird.

Because of her understanding of people who like to watch their weight and money, CAROLYN BUTLER HARE has opened a low-cost reducing salon.

Need pansies? Go to PANSY MARTIN'S Florist Shoppe where the specialty is, of course, pansies.

PEGGY ROMERO ANTONY will have life easy with a day nursery with JOAN BRIGGS as assistant "mother-away-from-home."

Principal of Bridge City High School, HENRY ETTA CROWELL, is having trouble with girls who are always late for fifth period class.

Career girl, BARBARA GUIDRY, manager of Monte Carlo, is still hoping for a ring from someone special.

LINDA MULHOLLAN and FRANCES SANDERLIN will appear at Carnegie Hall playing and singing "Galvanized Washing Tub" and making hearts throb with the beauty of their music.

LINDA PREJEAN has the double honor of being head of the Commercial Department as well as the Physical Ed Department at Kalamazoo High.

DOREEN TAFT has her own article, known as "Taft's Tales", in the Orange Leader. She answers questions on how to get a boy friend and keep him.

CHARLES PREVOST has become quite a heavy eater. He is working in a carnival side show as a fat man.

ELDRIDGE NEWSON is now working for Alcoholics Anonymous counting pink elephants.

KEITH PREDMORE is the world champion of Go Kart racing. His latest conquest was the Bubble Gum "500".

RONNIE DUVAL is now working for the Playtex Company. He models Playtex's new line of girdles for men.

CAROLYN DUNBAR has just won the International contest for talking the longest and the most.

SANDRA THOMPSON, better known as "Booger Red" is now the International champion woman wrestler.

Everyone will be pleased to know that ELAINE ELLIS will be our new janitor and will keep our school spotless.

WAYNE DUBOSE is an up-and-coming romantic actor. Warner Brothers is billing him as the modern day Rudolph Valentino.

JOHNNY HALE has just patented his new hair oil for bald-headed men. There's nothing in the bottle, but it looks good sitting on the shelf.

BRUCE JOHNSON, a noted mathematician, has recently astounded the mathematic world by proving that the Pythagorean principle doesn't hold water. We didn't say he proved it false- just that it didn't hold water.

DOUGLAS SHARRON is now making contact lens for far-sighted dogs who are always brushing against fire hydrants.
